The Workshop

A men's weekend workshop of recovery and sharing for men who are serious about their recovery. Work shops are a vital part recovery whereas shared experiences of the past benefits experiences of the future. It is a wonderful way to experience the steps for old timers as well as newcomers.

The Location

Lumen Christi Retreat Center, north of Houma, Louisiana, is in a beautiful moss draped hardwood forest. The Center is surrounded by oaks, cyprus and ponds which create an atmosphere of spiritual tranquility. The center has accommodations for eighty people. Bed rooms accommodate two people per room with a private bath. An ideal environment for a sponsor and sponsee. Three quality meals will be served on Saturday and breakfast served on Sunday. Snacks will be available in the evenings after Meetings.

The Schedule

Arrive Friday at 5:00 PM, Check in and unpack. The first gathering will commence at 7:30 PM followed by our Friday night speaker. Snacks, fellowship will follow. Guided meditation and will start the morning on Saturday. Work shops are presented through out the day. After dinner, enjoy the Saturday night speaker. Meeting and fellowship will follow. After a guided meditation and breakfast Sunday morning, a closing speaker meeting will end the workshop.

The Speakers

Our panel of speakers are active members of Alcoholics Anonymous with diverse experiences in the fellowship.

We are blessed to have:

Joe R. Simsboro, La.

Jay G. Ruston, La.

Paul S. Galliano, La

Additional speakers and workshop chairpersons will be announced at the workshop.
